Year 5 have had an engaging term. Here are just some of the things we have been doing:

- learning about structural engineering during Science Week using marshmallows and straws
- creating amazing tessellating artworks
- writing fantastic similes and metaphors using colour cards from Bunnings
- creating life sized robots using our knowledge of geometry and enlargement
- directing and producing entertaining re-enactments of the Eureka Stockade